These funds have provided food, drinking water, cooking essentials, medical supplies and mosquito nets for surviving families. In addition, we supported communication access for disaster response volunteers across multiple affected regions. Our efforts have helped survivors find immediate relief, yet the situation remains dire. Thousands of families are still in need of food, shelter, medical aid, and long-term recovery support.

As of today's transfers, 19,890 beneficiaries have received short-term and long-term assistance, and this number will continue to grow as more aid reaches affected communities. With our trusted partners inside Myanmar, we will continue transferring the remaining and incoming donations directly to the ground day by day to ensure timely assistance reaches those most in need.

The People in Myanmar Still Need Your Support – Donate Now!

Your continued generosity can make a significant difference in the lives of those struggling to rebuild after this disaster. Every donation counts. Join us in extending a helping hand to those in need.
